

Mr Priceless
WELCOME PACK

WELCOME TO THE WHĀNAU

Kia ora, welcome to Mr Priceless!

You've officially joined Mr Priceless, and we're stoked to have you. This pack covers what happens next, what we'll need from you, and what to expect. No jargon, no fine print, just the plan.

Stoked to have you on board

Kia ora

We're pretty picky about who we work with, so if we've said yes, it's because we genuinely reckon we can get you great results. We're really looking forward to this one.

Our job is simple: get quotes booked in with the right kind of work. Yours is to keep doing what you do best, and let us know how those quotes are landing so we can keep fine-tuning things.

Have a read through, and flick us a message if anything doesn't make sense.

Cheers,

Rocky and Max

WHAT WE'RE DOING FOR YOU

Here's what we're running for you

Meta ads

Facebook and Instagram ads in front of locals who need what you do, built from your real work.

CRM and lead tracking

Every lead in one place, the second it comes in, with automatic quote reminders.

Content creation

Photos and video of your work, made to run as ads.

10

OUR PROMISE

Our 10-quote guarantee

We're backing ourselves to get you 10 quotes booked. You'll see the count tick up in every report, so you always know exactly where we're at.

Your first few weeks

Here's exactly what happens from this week until your ads go live.

1

THIS WEEK

Welcome email and your CRM login

Your login is where you'll see every lead the moment it comes in.

2

Onboarding call

We learn the business, agree what a great lead is, and connect your calendar.

3

ON THE CALL

Your CRM walkthrough

Where leads land, how to add notes, and moving leads through the stages.

4

AROUND

Your ads go live

Your ads start running and the first enquiries come through.

5

EVERY FORTNIGHT

Your catch-up and report

What we spent, how many leads came in, and what each one cost you.

YOUR BIT

What we need from you

Send us these two, and tick them off as you go.

Before and after job photos

Upload them to your document storage in the CRM. Real work beats stock photos every time.

A photo of you, and one of the team

People hire people, and faces in ads get noticeably more enquiries. Don't worry about the background or perfect photos, the team can work their magic here.

THEN KEEP THESE GOING

● Update the CRM

The jobs you've quoted, the job value, and which stage they're sitting in. It helps us feed Meta the right data and tells us who to go after.

● Close some deals

Booked quotes land straight in your calendar, with an automatic text to the customer before each one.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Enquiries first, then quotes, then jobs

How the first few months usually play out.

1

WEEK 1

Setting up

WE

Build your ads, landing page and CRM.

YOU SEE

Your login and a first look at the ads.

2

MONTH 1

First quotes

WE

Run ads already proven with our other clients, to get quotes in fast.

YOU SEE

Enquiries and quotes coming in, and a pipeline building for month two.

3

MONTHS 2 TO 3

Sharpening

WE

Double down on what works and cut what doesn't.

YOU SEE

Steadier enquiries and better quality leads.

THE HONEST BIT

Worth knowing up front

Paid leads aren't referrals.

They convert a bit lower than word of mouth, but they're steady and they scale.

Your feedback steers the ads.

Moving leads through the CRM stages shows us which ones were good.

Month one is the warm-up.

Bigger jobs take time to land. You'll head into month two with quotes already in the pipeline.

Speed wins jobs.

Call new leads back within the hour. It makes a real difference.

Your go-to person

Questions, wins, a lead that seems off, or just want a yarn about how things are tracking? Flick your go-to person a text or give them a call, and you'll hear back the same day.
